TRIBUTE TO ALTONA'S MAYOR -

"Humble, Efficient, Dignified"

"Three words could describe the Mayor and Mayoress, Cr. and Mrs. P. A. Burns," said Cr. C. W. Carlsson at the end of Tuesday's Council meeting — the last official function in Cr. Burns' Mayoral term. "Those words are humble, dignified and efficient."

Cr. Carlsson joined all other Altona councillors to pay tribute to the way Cr. Burns served the city as Mayor.

"You have both given everything it is possible to give," Cr. W. L. J. Crofts told Cr. and Mrs. Burns. "The Council and the citizens of Altona greatly appreciate the wonderful way in which you carried out the duties of office."

"I congratulate you on a wonderful job, and feel it is a very fitting tribute that you have been returned unopposed to serve this Council for another three years."

"Crs. D. K. Grant and P. J. Lynch also officially retire after this Council meeting. We've had differences of opinion at times, but I feel it is a wonderful thing that we can express our different views and still get on amicably."

"I am pleased that Crs. Lynch and Grant have also been returned unopposed. We are fortunate to have men of their calibre."

Cr. Grant said Cr. Burns had set a high standard as leader of the municipality.

In reply, Cr. Burns said he looked back in pleasure over the year and found satisfaction in the city's accomplishments.

"I have found a sense of civic pride in so many ways as I moved about my official duties," he continued. "There has been a sense of co-operation from our service organisations in the multitude of things, some big and some small, in which they participated for the benefit of the community."

"Sporting organisations have also played their part for the benefit of the community and, of course, the cultural organisations have played their part too."

Cr. Burns said he attended 118 official functions during the year, and was represented at many more by other councillors.

"Highlights of the year include the co-operation of Altona Apex Club in the promotion of a garden competition," he said. "I think this is something which will progress from year to year."

"Road construction works have proceeded apace in the Altona Meadows area of the city and in a few days' time stage one should be completed."

"An inspection of the Lower Yarra Freeway works during the year was an eye-opener to all and we look forward with interest to the completion of the bypass roads which pass along the northern boundary of our city."

"The parks and gardens section of the Council has planted many more trees and cared for them. We must congratulate the Gardening Section for the display of daffodils in the gardens adjacent to the Civic Offices and for the way they have kept playing areas in wonderful condition at all seasons."

"Visits to the area by Ministers of the Crown are the highlights. The Assistant Minister for Education, Mr. J. A. Rafferty, visited here for the opening of Education Week activities. The visit of Mr. William Borthwick, Minister for Lands, to discuss Truganina Estate Development only last week, will contribute to the development of Altona in years to come."

"It may seem inappropriate to mention the Board of Works in this report, but we must express appreciation to the Board for the sewerage works which are being undertaken at the present stage, but progress is not as fast as one would wish. The Council will press for improved progress."

"There was successful Clean Air Act prosecution during the year. This may seem an odd highlight to mention, but it does demonstrate the vigilance of the Council and its officers to ensure that the law is adhered to by all persons, be they private or corporate citizens."

"During the year there are, of course, a number of social activities which the Mayor and Mayoress are called upon to attend and perhaps the biggest honour of all was to be invited, with the Town Clerk, Mr. Waters, and Mrs. Waters, to the State Reception to the Queen, Prince Phillip, Prince Charles and Princess Anne."

"The Mayoress and I were extremely proud that night to meet the Royal family."

"Then, this week, as almost a finale to my mayoral year, it was my privilege to be introduced to the Lord Mayor of London during his official visit to Australia, when he attended a civic reception at Melbourne Town Hall. We were privileged to meet Lt.

Colonel and Alderman, Sir Ian Bowater and Lady Bowater."

Cr. Burns said his most important duty was to thank his wife.

"She attended every Council meeting but one — and that was when she was ill. I was particularly proud to have my wife by my side while I sat in the Mayor's chair to administer Altona."

He thanked councillors for their tributes and said it had been a pleasure to work with them.

"We know that in committee and in the council chamber we have fights and differences of opinions, but I must pay tribute to the eight councillors for the homework they do before they come into this chamber each meeting night."

"A councillor who works for a living loses a lot of money and a lot of time, and they must have very tolerant wives."

"I can assure Altona ratepayers that their councillors are doing their job."

He also thanked all Council officers, including Mr. J. W. Waters, Town Clerk, and Mr. R. Simmons, City Engineer.

"I don't care where you go — to any part of Australia — if you mention Altona and the people know the place, they say we have the best roads in Australia," Cr. Burns continued. "This is because of our City Engineer — everything he does, he does well."

Cr. Burns concluded the meeting by presenting each councillor with a set of cuff links.

HONOUR FOR KAS JURGA

Mr. Kas Jurga is a Justice of the Peace and serves at times on the Footscray Bench. His interest in this work has been shown by his recent appointment as president of the Western Suburbs branch of the Honorary Justices' Association.

Mr. Jurga who resides in Altona North is well remembered for his work in his office as an Altona councillor.

In his year of office as J.P. Mr. Jurga has the intention of giving emphasis on the prevalence and menace of shoplifting.

Some extracts from a most impressive address by Mr. Jurga are:—

"I have in mind in particular one offence that arouses public anxiety and that is shoplifting."

Let us have more trust in men in our public life, more understanding of these happenings by challenging the surrounding circumstances in which a man does something against the law. So let us analyse carefully the factors exciting temptation to shoplifting.

However, the moral will be this that we are trying to enlighten a problem and put up some ideas for improvements, to face and judge with better knowledge, humours in the commercial world.

'Pirates Of Penzance'

Pirate King, Ron Gordon, threatens the Major-General, Michael Kublik, in the final act of "Pirates of Penzance" presented earlier this month by students of Altona High School for a season of five nights and two matinees in the Civic Hall.

Altona High School must keep on producing Gilbert and Sullivan operas. At this year's "Pirates of Penzance" the appreciative audience clearly showed that the lapse of a year has not lessened but rather increased the interest in these performances.

The standard of the junior cast was such that the traditionally pseudo-serious performance of the Gilbert and Sullivan opera was well and imaginatively given from the opening appearance of, brightly arrayed pirates with appropriate expressions to the closing denouement.

This most nonsensical of the comic operas was effectively staged.

Particularly in this opera the succession of farcical incidents have a tendency to magnify the plot at the expense of the individual artists.

But the leading roles were well played and the chorus actions and singing — so prominent in this opera — filled the bill.

The modern Major-General, the portly policeman with the slipped waistline, the chorus of policemen, the costumes, the scenery and the inevitable Gilbert solution were an enjoyable impression that will be remembered.

The stage of the Civic Hall was rather too small for the 70 or so players whose names were listed in the simple but adequate programme.

Minister's Visit Was Best Ever

An on-site meeting of Altona Council representatives and the Minister for Lands, Mr. William Borthwick, M.L.A. to discuss development of the 401 acre Truganina Explosives Reserve was the best meeting Altona Council has ever had with a Government Minister, the Mayor, Cr. P. A. Burns, said on Tuesday.

"Although there are problems, Mr. Borthwick assured us he would do everything in his power to help us," Cr. Burns said.

Mr. J. W. Waters, Town Clerk, said Mr. Borthwick and the Secretary for Lands, Mr. A. Holt, were fully acquainted with council's progress in formulating plans for development of the reserve.

He said Cabinet offered the Reserve to the Council

some time ago subject to an appropriate Act of Parliament and subject to the council submitting plans and guarantees that it could develop the Reserve for residential, commercial and open space purposes.

"If council pursues this with Mr. Borthwick, I feel we're really getting some where," said Cr. Burns.

Cr. W. L. J. Crofts moved that a special General Purposes Committee discuss the Minister's visit with a view to the council taking any necessary action.

Werribee Wants "Laverton Park"

Werribee Council has suggested to the Place Names Committee that the name "Altona Meadows" be changed to "Laverton Park"

Altona Council will seek approval to send a deputation to the Committee to ensure the name remains Altona Meadows.

EDITORIAL

CR. P. A. BURNS

Cr. Burns has nearly completed a year as Mayor of the City of Altona.

He has worthily filled his office.

He has presided at meetings of Council and committees and the business of the City has been conducted with dignity and efficiency.

By his attendance, appreciation and actions, he has done much in support of Altona organisations.

And by his representations in other places than Altona, he has helped to maintain and improve the image of our City.

Many of these duties were pleasing in their nature but they were also onerous in their extent.

In carrying them out so well, Cr. and Mrs. Burns have helped Altona.

To them, on behalf of the people of Altona, we say thank you.

1,000 NEW TREES TO BE PLANTED THIS SEASON

More than 1,000 replacement trees will be planted in Altona's streets and parks this season, Mr. N. K. Boyd, Superintendent of Parks and Gardens reported to Council last week.

He said dead and destroyed trees would be replaced in every street, then no more trees would be replaced until the next planting season unless ratepayers offered to look after the trees.

It takes too much time to replace trees individually as they are broken or die," Mr. Boyd said.

"This year we were lucky to have a wet autumn, for we did not have a truck to water our trees for approximately five months, if we had needed it. We were allowed to hire a truck for about six weeks, but unless council is prepared to provide water, it is useless planting the trees.

"Another point I again wish to bring to your notice is the lack of money to purchase young trees a year ahead, to let them acclimatise and be established in containers before planting out. We are at this very position now with the right time for nursery work such as mentioned at hand and no money to carry out the work.

"Remember, trees do not grow up over night and there are containers to buy for same. Approximately $2,000 to $2,500 is needed before next year's money becomes available."

Commenting on the Australian Natives' Association proposal to plant trees in the city as part of its centenary celebrations, Mr. Boyd said suitable areas were the Apex Reserve, the W. L. J. Crofts Reserve and the Cherry Lake area.

He said special care would be needed in selecting trees for the Apex Reserve, because of salt-laden winds, and the Cherry Lake area, because of the swampy nature of the soil.

Mr. Boyd also suggested that some of the city's new streets could be named after Australian trees. He said there were many suitable names to choose from.

Mr. Boyd said the council should consider buying a glass house, estimated to cost $3,000. He said this would assist in rejuvenating and propagating expensive indoor plants.

Mr. Boyd said he knew of no definite plan for the development of Cherry Lake or any other reserve in Altona.

"If Altona is to develop as a balanced community, it will be necessary to plan the same way as you are planning for roads," he told the council. "It is noticeable that at this stage it is well out of balance."

The council was told that the area around Mr. Boyd's office needed a fence, because many things had been stolen from it.

"I have had a personal loss of an electric shaver taken from my desk drawer," Mr. Boyd said. "I had notes destroyed when weed poison was tipped all over the office when vandals broke in, to say nothing of the petrol and batteries which have been stolen, also large quantities of grass seed have to be destroyed here."

"Yet another matter is a telephone. For quite a few years now I have had to walk about 100 yards each way to answer the telephone, to say nothing of the person who has to let me know that I am needed. I think this is a ridiculous state of affairs when I see telephones on every desk in the Civic Offices."

"In closing, I hope council will consider an increase in the men and money to be made available for Parks and Gardens, as what we have is totally inadequate."

Consideration of Mr. Boyd's suggestions on the A.N.A. proposal was deferred. Other matters raised by him were referred to the council's Finance Committee.

PROTEST AT HORSE BY-LAW — BACK FOR RE-DRAFTING

Altona Council will re-draft its proposed by-law to control the keeping of horses, cattle and similar animals following a number of protests from horse-lovers.

The present wording of the by-law, moved by Cr. J. I. Stewart, on July 28, prohibits the keeping of horses, other than for dairy purposes, cattle and similar animals, other than goats used for milking, on less than an acre of land or closer than 40 feet from a residential building.

Under the present wording horses for dairy purposes and goats for milking can be kept if Council permission is obtained.

On Tuesday, Cr. Stewart moved that final sealing of the by-law and its submission to the Public Health Commission for approval be deferred until the wording is re-drafted to allow the keeping of horses on less than an acre of land provided written permission is obtained from the Council.

When the by-law was presented for signing and sealing on Tuesday the Town Clerk, Mr. J. W. Waters, told Council that two letters — one of them signed by 28 young people — had been received about the by-law.

He said the young people asked why the Council wanted to restrict horses and pointed out that at least 150 local teenagers rode horses each weekend.

"What do you want us to do?" they asked the Council. "Go around the streets making vandals of our selves?"

The other letter was from Mrs. Betty Glennon, who agreed that horses had to be kept under control, and people had to make way for progress, but considered the Council was harsh in framing the by-law.

She said few horse owners could obtain an acre of land. "A child who has an interest is not the child who goes around breaking windows and bashing people," she said, and suggested that the Council print a list of do's and don'ts for horseowners to enable them to fit in with the Council's wishes.

"The purpose of the by-law was to enable the Council to have some form of control over horses," Cr. Crofts said. "At present we have no method of control."

"Although the by-law specifies one acre of land, there is provision for the people to keep horses with a permit if they haven't got an acre."

"I can understand the concern expressed in these letters, but I am sure if law-abiding people, who know and love horses and understand their needs, need have no fear of the by-law."

"In fact, I feel the by-law is to their advantage."

"The original intention of the Council was to restrict those who are giving the genuine horse-lovers a bad name. Some of these people have been abusive to Council officers and councillors."

"These are the ones we want to control. We don't want to knock the genuine horse-lovers."

Cr. Stewart said the days were long gone when the Council could afford to allow people to keep horses in backyards and front gardens.

"People can apply for a permit to keep a horse on less than an acre," he said. "This by-law was brought in to stop the keeping of horses in backyards and front gardens. It is to the benefit of horse-lovers."

"The references to vandalism isn't right. The bad horse-keepers are the ones who tear up nature strips and other people's gardens. They do as much or more damage than vandals."

"This minority is, unfortunately, forcing us to bring in the by-law. I sympathise with the children who have horses, but each application for a permit will be considered separately."

Cr. P. Lynch said he, more than any other councillor, was acquainted with the problems of keeping horses. He said that as chairman of the Junior Council, he was continually being asked about it.

"I have suggested to the children that they get together with their parents to form a pony club — then the Council would look for an area to set aside for them."

"Bad boys and girls don't keep ponies — only good kids have horses."

Mr. Waters pointed out that under the original by-law Council could permit dairy horses to be kept on less than an acre of land.

"I feel the by-law has been drafted too stringently," he said, suggesting the deferment while alterations were made.

Employment Training Scheme For Women

Mr. J. W. Scott, Manager of the Newport District Employment Office, said today that his Minister, the Hon. B. M. Sneddon, Q. C., M. P. had announced to the House of Representatives on August 20, the introduction of an Employment Training Scheme for Women.

The Scheme is designed to assist married and adult single women, who have previously been restricted from employment by domestic responsibilities and who now wish to enter or re-enter the work force.

Under the Scheme, women will be able to receive training either in industry or in training institutions which will equip them for the employment of their choice.

"Full details of the Scheme including information regarding those eligible to benefit from it, will be available after September 14, from various women's organisations, municipal authorities and from District Employment Offices and their Agents."

Mr. Scott said that he and his staff would be pleased to answer enquires in the meantime.

Those interested in the Scheme should telephone or call at or write to the Newport District Employment Office 430 Melbourne Rd., Telephone 391-1844.

Red Shield Appeal Concluded

The 1970 Red Shield Appeal to support to services and projects of The Salvation Army has concluded and the Secretary for Public Relations in the Salvation Army Brigadier Edwin Marion has announced that a total of $306,000 was raised.

The objective of the appeal was $250,000.

"This result is most gratifying, and will enable us to carry on the task of community, charitable and emergency service to help people who turn to us in their time of need," said Brigadier Marion.

"Thank God for the Salvos" was the message of the campaign, but now it's the "Salvos" turn to say a sincere and heart-felt thanks to the generous people of Victoria," added Brigadier Marion.

Of the $220,800, raised in Melbourne $2,075,52 came from Williamstown and $1,048,45 from Werribee and Altona.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report of the Altona Historical Society as presented by secretary, Mr. A. Clark, shows that it is a live body doing important work. It is preserving much of interest to the people of Altona and also doing valuable research. More members are needed.

Extracts from the report are: "The Society has had another year of activity and progress."

The Museum continues to be opened once a month and among those attending have been a number of school groups.

The Coal Mine Display in September last year was very successful. Over 1,300 persons visited the display in the Museum whilst many others saw the display boards in the Library and the West Altona Sub-branch of the State Savings Bank of Victoria.

The ceremony for the unveiling in Pier Street of the Air Flight Plaque was attended by about 200 people including the Director of Civil Aviation, Sir Donald Anderson, and the Mayor of the City of Altona, Cr. P. A. Burns. Mr. Harry Rigby helped organise the function and donated one of his paintings of the early flights of J. J. Hammond.

A booklet "A Short History of Altona" has been completed by the Society and is in the process of being duplicated.

Some valuable objects have been donated by various organisations and individuals for which the Society is extremely thankful.

Membership remains steady at about 20 but an increase in this field is sought.

Further research has been made into Altona's history and the gaps continue to close but many more still exist.

During the year Council co-operated with the Society's activities, both financially and in the organisation of displays and the plaque unveiling ceremony.

The Society appreciates the efforts of the Council in preserving a segment out of the tree that stood at the corner of Pier and Queen Streets, also for the use of the room in the 'Homestead'.

The future shows promise of further activities with Exhibitions from November 14 - 29 on "Early Land Development in Altona" and in April 1971 on "Early Organisations of Altona" as part of the proposed Arts Festival."

Officers elected at the Annual Meeting were:— President, Mr. A. Walker; Vice President, Mr. G. Eaton; Secretary, Mr. A. Clark; Assist. Secretary, Mrs. A. Walker; and Treasurer, Mrs. A. Clark.

INTEREST

Altona Council had gained $21,200 interest on short term investments during the current municipal financial year, Cr. W. L. J. Crofts reported on Tuesday.

He said the success of the investment program was due to wise manipulations by council officers.

KEEP CARS OFF PARK

Mr. R. Simmons, Altona's City Engineer, has been asked to fence Apex Park off from the Esplanade to prevent cars driving on the park.

Mr. Ian Johnson, Apex Club secretary, told council that numerous fences put up by the club had been destroyed.

"On a number of occasions the fence has been repaired in what we had hoped to be a permanent fixture, only to find it wrecked by these vandals the very next day," he said. "At one time even a deep trench was dug, all to no avail."

Val's Column

HELLO, GIRLS,

Now you have nearly gone and left it too late what to get Dad. Here are a few more suggestions from us. Maybe he is having trouble getting those shoes on, needs a long-handle shoe-horn, plain or fancy. A clothes brush, small, compact with a masculine manicure set zipped onto the back. Often short of glasses when out on that weekend drive? A handy pack of anodized mugs in convenient leather holder, opener included. He likes his Scotch. A measure stopper in fine style, or could need a magnificent ice bucket. Ancient Mariner designs on table cigarette lighters, pen and pencil caddy, or odds and ends box. Sis, giving a shirt? Keep it modern with set of cufflinks, tie pin or tie bar.

What is the shape this year? What colour will you be seeing things? Sunglasses in light weight frames of modern designs are on show now. Look forward to better sunny days without a frown.

Now, for the first time ever—a double size Cyclax Moistura Special. Yes, twice the quantity for only 20 cents more. Moistura, a very popular night cream, is effective on all types of skins. It is skilfully formulated to counteract the drying effects caused during the day by wind and weather. Its natural emollients carry the moisture deep into the skin cells, then a light, softening film, is formed over the skin's surface to lessen evaporators and provide a protective barrier for the next day's conditions.

Cash in on this twice-the-size special. There are a few only of Revlon Flex specials left, too, girls. When you buy this tube of conditioner you buy five products. 1. A hair treatment—work into clean towel-dried hair, wrap in hot towel for quarter hour, rinse out excess. 2. Creme rinse—after shampoo, squeeze out excess water, dissolve teaspoon Flex in 8 ozs. warm water, pour through hair and rinse. 3. Hair Dressing—sparse amount combed through during the week. 4. Protection from sun—apply as dressing to prevent excess drain of protein in heat. 5. Cleanser—for badly abused and extremely dry hair.

Bye.

Red Cross Jumble Sale Raises $1,000

The recent Red Cross Jumble Sale held in the Williamstown Town Hall finished with a nett profit of $1005 for Red Cross funds.

At the close of trading on Sale Day the result was a few dollars below the target of $1000 but sales since that date enabled all expenses to be paid (hall rental and a small advertising account) and a profit of $1005 results.

The Williamstown Red Cross Service Company is most appreciative of the wonderful response from the public which is amply demonstrated by the fact that the first stall 5 years ago netted $404.

Members of the Red Cross Company are most generous in their praise of Asst. Superintendent Mrs. J. Grant who spends a whole year preparing for and organising this Jumble Sale.

Williamstown Bowling Club

The working bee, held on Sunday, was well attended, some 20 dedicated members turning out to help.

The club surrounds now look much neater with the work done. The exercise is to be repeated this Sunday, and a few more helpers would be appreciated.

The selectors again ask for intending players to place their names on the availability board.

Please let the secretary have your reply to the Opening Day invitation.

No Passenger Trains on Newport Sunshine Branch Line

It would not be practicable to operate passenger trains on the Newport-Sunshine goods line but an investigation is to be made to ascertain if the buses operating meet the needs of the area said the Minister of Transport last week.

He was replying to a request from the Hon. A. W. Knight, MLC, who on behalf of the Western Suburbs Municipal Association asked if diesel passenger trains could use the goods line or if it could be electrified.

The Minister, Mr. V. F. Wilcox said:

"The Railway Commissioners have advised me that this line was developed to provide freight facilities to 31 sidings located between Newport and Sunshine.

"I understand that the line is used for wheat and general goods traffic between the areas of the State and Geelong to avoid interference with suburban passenger services between Newport and Melbourne.

"The layout of the track only part of which is duplicated and the signalling on the line is of significance also.

"I am informed that both these features are designed for goods train operations only and would require extensive alterations to bring them to the standard required for passenger train running.

"The Commissioners have, therefore, expressed the view that it would not be practicable to operate a scheduled passenger service on the Newport Sunshine line.

"In all the circumstances I am afraid that no good purpose would be achieved by me seeing a deputation on this matter.

"However, I understand that the area concerned is presently served by a number of bus services.

"I also believe that several companies in the area either charter buses or use their own transport to bring workers to and from railway stations at Yarraville, Footscray and West Footscray.

"I have, therefore, asked the Transport Regulation Board to have a look at these services generally to see if the transport needs of the area are being met."

Good Result To Salvation Army Appeal

The Salvation Army would be able to increase its services as a result of an unexpectedly good response to its appeal last month.

Commissioner Frederick Harvey, leader of the Salvation Army in the Southern States, said this at a youth gathering at Moonee Ponds Town Hall on Sunday.

"Victoria contributed $316,000 well over the target of $250,000," he said.

"This is very wonderful indeed. We shall be able to do more."

The commissioner addressed 14 young members of the Salvation Army from branches throughout Melbourne, including the Western Suburbs, who have offered themselves for training as Salvation Army officers. They included youth of both sexes.

"One of my biggest problems as territorial commander is that of personnel.

"There are opportunities for the Salvation Army to serve in our territory which are hardly touched. I have to keep on putting them off, putting them off. We just have not the people to send."

He told the other young people present, "I hope that, please God, your hearts will be touched."

He told how he had been a Salvation officer for 45 years. It was a most wonderful life.

"It has not been easy," said Commissioner Harvey. "But I speak as one who knows and one who has travelled the World and had every type of experience. I would do it all over again."

Salvation Army personnel worked under the direction of Almighty God.

"One sees again and again how out of an impossible situation when you are right up against the wall somehow or other the Lord steps in in His wonderful way."

LISTON-ESPLANADE REACHES KOORYONG SEMI-FINAL

Liston-Esplanade swamped Glen Iris, six rubbers to nil, to enter the LTAV's C Special Pennant semi-final. The ease of the win points to the local team being a hot contender for premiership honors in this strong grade competition.

Captain John Kelly again won the toss and elected to play with his brother Michael first rubbers on.

This resulted in another outstanding start for the Liston-Esplanade team as both these singles were won in straight sets.

Both Kelly boys are in great form and left nothing to be desired in their efforts to gain an early break on the Glen Iris players.

With two rubbers in the bag Robert Walker put the locals in an almost unbeatable position by winning his rubber in straight sets after a close first set battle which resulted in a 6-5 win.

John Hewitt again met a tough opponent but rose to the occasion and produced greatly improved form to land the rubber 6-4 in his third set. John's general play was a heartening feature of the team's win and augurs well for this week's semi-final.

When John levelled at one set all the match was won by Liston-Esplanade and the remaining doubles were only a formality. However, Glen Iris plugged on well and provided valuable match practice although losing both doubles.

The team in reaching the semi-final has notched up the best performance of any "C" Special team representing the Club and it would be a wonderful effort to collect a flag from LTAV.

The team's efforts are even more praiseworthy when one considers that the two new members of the team, Robert Walker and John Hewitt were elevated two grades from their last year's "D" team which won the pennant.

The opposition club in the semi-final will be East Camberwell who were lucky enough to score a bye in their quarter-final.

The Club's picture night is already a near sell out and looks like being a triumph for social organiser Doug Stephenson and the energetic committee.

the property, leading to the tenant paying a reasonable rent."

Dr. Cairns said that in a number of cases where the owner had refused to co-operate, the property was declared Special Premises. This declaration could remain on the property for some years.

Sometimes the tenant's action had led to him being served with a Notice to Quit. However, very often the Fair Rents Board had stepped in to prevent him being evicted. It had power to do so.

"The owner has adequate rights in respect of all this," said Dr. Cairns. "But it is the tenant who needs most protection."

The Fair Rents Board was at 453 Latrobe St., Melbourne, phone 60-0361.

Newport Amateur Swimming Club

JUNIOR GIRLS WIN PENNANT

The final day of the Winter Pennant competition was held on August 23 at the Olympic Pool, when the Junior girls' team was successful in winning very easily from the Cheltenham No. 1 team.

The girls' team was a well balanced combination consisting of Maree White (2 wins), Geraldine Murphy (2 wins), Robyn Jackson, Neleen Flahive, Ann O'Leary, one win each, with Robyn Van der Reyden and Amanda McIntosh being in the successful relay teams. This team went through the 12 weeks competition undefeated, bringing great credit to themselves and the club.

Senior boys finished in second place to the strong, Cheltenham No. 1 team. Their position was also worthy of high praise, whilst the Junior boys showed courage in finishing equal third with Bal-larat.

Graded scratch events will continue until September 2, and these times will be taken into consideration for selection in the Spring inter-club competitions which start on September 11 and 12.

Entries are now open for the Footscray-Preston Motor Company 100 metres Pairs Handicap to be held on September 9. Each swimmer to swim 50 metres freestyle. Entries close on September 2.

LAPIDARY CLUB

In spite of it being the coldest day on record, 10 cars turned out for the barbecue and rock swap on Sunday, August 16 at Tyn-ong.

Everyone was glad of a warm around the fire and the aroma of cooking was mouth-watering. When lunch was over, there was much swapping of rocks and specimens. Then a visit to the Cornucopia Museum and Art Gallery, which proved most enjoyable.

The social evening for August has been cancelled. For any information contact the secretary any evening on 311-5476.

THREE ROAD SAFETY CAMPAIGNS

Three major road safety campaigns will be conducted during 1970-71.

The campaigns will deal with:

- Driving on the open road.
- Seat Belts and Children's Restraining Devices
- Child Road Safety.

The campaigns were adopted by the Australian Road Safety Council following recommendations received from a meeting of Secretaries of State and Territorial Road Safety Councils.

The 'Driving on the Open Road' campaign will be launched prior to Christmas 1970 and will include concentrated television and radio advertising and the distribution of printed material.

Emphasis will be given to preparation and planning for long trips, including adequate servicing of the vehicle; handling of various road conditions; the hauling of caravans and trailers; roadcraft and driving behaviour and the role of the driver in maintaining a defensive driving attitude.

The second campaign, dealing with Seat Belts and Child Restraining Devices will be developed prior to Easter 1971 and will use posters and pamphlets, to gether with films primarily for television.

'Child Road Safety' the third campaign, will be launched in August 1971 and will concentrate on all aspects of child road safety using material drawn from the Council's 'Children's Highway Code' and 'The Teachers Manuals' used in schools throughout the Commonwealth.

Excess Rent A Problem?

High rents were one of the main causes of poverty, but they could be lowered if tenants submit their case to the Fair Rents Board, Dr. J. F. Cairns said recently.

Dr. Cairns, Federal Member for Lalor, said that the hardship faced by tenants had been reported by a Salvation Army officer during the Army's recent appeal in the Western Suburbs.

Dr. Cairns said that investigation had often shown that one of the main causes of poverty among families and pensioners particularly was excess rent. People remained poor unless the rent was greatly reduced.

"Many years ago, it was considered wrong for rents to exceed one-fifth of the income," he said. "But I have known of many cases where the rent is well over half the family income."

"Over many years I have witnessed case after case of unfair rents. The landlord had no justification whatever. On many occasions, referring the case to the Fair Rents Board had resulted in a competent investigation. This had been followed by a valuation on

ARCHBISHOP SPENDS A MORNING AT LOWTHER HALL

The Archbishop of Melbourne, the Most Reverend Dr. Frank Woods spent a few happy hours at Lowther Hall on Tuesday, August 4.

KEROSENE SAFETY

The attention of the Home Safety Department of the National Safety Council has been drawn to the number of accidents which occur through the misuse of household kerosene heaters mainly through the use of wrong fuel.

It appears that many people, particularly migrants, are confused about the word kerosene which is "Petrol" in Greece, "Petrolio Illuminante" in Italy, "Pitrolyu" in Malta and "Paraffin" in England.

Because of this confusion and because of ignorance, people are using automotive petrol, power kerosene, solvents, methylated spirit and fuel oil which cause their heaters to flare and even to explode.

Figures from the Australian Fire Protection Association show that there were 1,360 fires caused by heating appliances in Australia in 1966-67 and that many of these were caused by kerosene heaters. At least one case is known of a woman dying because of an explosion caused by using petrol in a kerosene heater.

DRUG MENACE

The stretching tentacles of the drug menace seem to be creeping continually closer to our community.

The Holy Trinity Young Members' Department (previously known as the Young Wives' Group) have been sufficiently disturbed by this to arrange for a member of the State Health Department, accompanied by one of the Department's medical officers, to visit Williams-town to discuss and show films of this serious problem.

The Holy Trinity Parish Hall in Pasco St. will be opened at 7.45 p.m. on Tuesday, September 1 to all adults in the district who wish to be present.

The Department particularly stresses that only those over the age of 21 be present at this particular meeting.

Another night will be held in the same hall on Tuesday, October 27 for the benefit of those between 14 and 21, as the Department feels the younger people will be more likely to seek advice and ask questions when older people, and particularly their parents, are not also present.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS SOCCER

The eighth round of the League got off to a good start on Saturday. The weather enabled more parents to be present.

Although North beat Seaholme 8-1 it wasn't such a walkover as the score suggests. Seaholme were battling all the time and played well but once again, as in other games, they will not take advantage of the off-side rule.

Best for North: Trifonovic, Cvetkovic, Goricante.

Best for Seaholme: R. Howden, Cooper, B. Howden.

Altona and East drew in a 1-1 draw. It was a hard game and excitement ran high right to the last minute.

Altona scored another goal but it was disallowed as off-side.

Best for Altona: V. Pace, P. Neyland, M. Vanderpoel.

Best for East: Dimitriov, D. Wood, Meletis.

West had a bye.

Voting for best and fairest is very close in the teams and an all-out effort is needed by the boys in the next two weeks.

Please parents, remember the date of the final game — September 6. Presentations and a party will take place in the Stan MacIntosh Pavilion at approx. 12 noon. All parents will be welcome and tea and cakes will be served.

Williamstown Lacrosse Club

Playing in the first semi-final the Deacons, undefeated for the season, were full of confidence as they had defeated Caulfield Gold 4 times during the year, but in the second quarter the Deacons suffered from final nerves and allowed the Gold to gain a four goal lead by half-time.

Both teams played very negative defence play in the second half and each added 5 goals to the tally which finally read 10-14.

The Deacons have a second chance and a win this week should give them the encouragement to go on and win the medal.

Details:
Third Division A Grade semi-final: Deacons defeated by Caulfield Gold, 10-14.

Goals: W. Davis 2, R. Speakman 3, J. Hunter 2, R. Green 2, K. Seal.
Best: G. Calvert, R. Walton, R. Green.

MORE CARS ON ROAD

The continuing annual rise in motor vehicles travelling on Australian roads and the increased mileage being covered by the vehicles is adding to road accident casualties.

More people than ever before are now exposed to the risk of death and injury on the road, and the huge increase in traffic explains why there are more victims.

Australia now shares with Canada the second highest ratio of motor vehicles to population in the world with one vehicle for every 2.7 people, compared with United States figures of 2.0 Britain, Switzerland and West Germany, 4.4, Japan 8.0, Sth. Africa 9.7 and Brazil 37.3.

Road Safety experts say that the Australian figures do not provide an excuse for the high incidence of casualties, but represent a challenge to all road users to drive with greater skill, and also point to the necessity for far more thorough systems of driver education and licensing.

In Australia the total number of motor vehicles on register at June 30, 1957 was 2,361,891. At June 30 1969 the number was 4,521,144, an increase over the 12 year period of 2,159,253. The average increase per year over the period was 179,938, or more than five percent.

During the period the number of persons per motor vehicle decreased from 3.8 to 2.7.

Motor spirit consumption represents a measure of vehicle use. For the year ended June 30 1959 the consumption per head was 110 gallons, when the populations stood at 9,947,358.

In 1968-9, the consumption of motor spirit per head was 168 gallons with a population of 12,173,300.

The mammoth increase in vehicles using the roads is world-wide. Figures published by the Petroleum Information Bureau show that 43.6 million vehicles were registered in the free world in 1940. In 1969 the number was 205.8 million, or more than four times as many in a period of less than 30 years.

The British Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents in a recently published bulletin forecast that the present population to vehicle ratio of 4.4 would, in the next 40 years be reduced to one vehicle for every 1.9 persons.

If the Australian motor vehicle population shows a parallel growth, then by 2,010 there will be more than one vehicle for every man, woman and child.

A vast increase in the development of freeways and limited access roads will, if American experience is a guide, significantly reduce the incidence of casualty producing accidents, but denser volumes of traffic elsewhere will add to the risk.

Undoubtedly, in the years ahead, driving skill will play an even more important role than ever before in protecting road users from death or injury. But the greatest need will not be manual skill in the handling of a vehicle in heavily trafficked situations, but the development of safe attitude towards the driving task, and the needs of other road users — an aspect which is barely touched upon in current examinations for licences and which requires highly trained instructors.

WESTERN SUBURBS TABLE TENNIS

As predicted previously, the preliminary final between Maidstone and Altona was a thriller.

For the third time in their three encounters the match wasn't decided until the last rubber when Maidstone won the deciding rubber to go into the grand final.

Full credit to Maidstone for their great win. However, Altona had their chance with a difference of one point going either way after playing to 20-all advantage in the third game in two matches.

The first of these was a tense affair with the father, Les Hayes, playing Brian Reid from Maidstone, with the score at one game all. Les, on the change of ends in the third game, was leading 10-4. However, Brian fought back magnificently and brought the score to 20-all, and after each had gained an advantage point Brian finally clinched it 26-24.

The other exciting match was between 16-year-old Brian Reid and 15-year-old Mick Hayes. These two lads put on a terrific performance with the concentration and the length of rallies being the outstanding feature. Mick won the first game 27-25, Brian the next 21-18 and in the "heart stopping" third game Brian won 26-24.

Once again young Peter Hayes did the job again with his father by winning the second doubles comfortably while Les and his other son

Jeff combined well to defeat the strong first doubles combination of Brian and Kevin Williams.

In the deciding match with the scores at 5-all Brian Reid proved too steady for Jeff to win his three rubbers.

Altona are to be congratulated for their fine performance in making the finals in their first year.

Police To Wear Seat Belts In Victoria

The Chief Commissioner of Police in Victoria, Mr Noel Wilby, has announced that all police would soon be instructed to wear seat belts at all times when travelling in police cars.

Mr Wilby said that the decision had been made at a meeting of senior police officers in June. The meeting had also agreed to support any campaign on seat belts.

"WOODSTOCK" — GREAT MUSIC, BUT SOMETHING LACKING

After attending the preview last week along with many other people, I left the cinema feeling that the film had been built up too much. But at least "Woodstock" was a film that did make me think. I kept wondering just how they managed to stage a show like that.

And the only conclusion I could come to was that much of the work was voluntary.

The promoters claim to have lost money on the deal but you can bet that somebody came away from "Woodstock" a richer person.

But if "Woodstock" meant money for anyone it was for Warner Brothers, the company that has released the film throughout the world.

Getting back to how I felt about the film, I thought the artists that performed at Bethel were good. British groups The Who and Joe Cocker and the Grease Band were particularly good.

And Joe Cocker's rendition of "With A Little Help From My Friends" was just great because the quality of sound and photography was equal.

First appearance in the film was made by Richie Havens who sings a stirring protest song backed up by his own fantastic guitar playing.

Joan Baez used that beautiful voice of hers to sing a song for her husband David who is still in jail for draft resistance.

The Who performed their usual brilliant act and once again finished up by breaking all their instruments.

Sha Na Na were a brilliant group who gave us rock and roll in German to one of the funniest dance routines I have ever seen.

Arlo Guthrie made a brief appearance only.

Country Joe and the Fish stirred the crowd up with their anti-Vietnam songs.

Crosby, Stills and Nash had everybody amazed by their harmony.

And a new group that will impress you is Ten Years After.

Singer Alvin Lee is another Jimmy Page or Stevie Nicks and can he play a guitar?

Another group that impressed me was the Mexican group Santana.

These guys are really good and it would be great to have them do a tour of Australia.

Well I will not say any more.

You will have to see the rest for yourself.

The photography is great and so is the sound.

You will have to make up your own mind whether you liked the film or not.

Thursday's Children Launched

The new Thursday's Children were officially launched at a cocktail reception in North Melbourne last week.

Unfortunately, the reception, clashed with the preview of "Woodstock" but people like Ray Evans and Michael Browning still found time to call in.

And that's what counts.

We could not stay too long.

But we were there long enough to get a glimpse of what we can expect from the Children.

And I think this group will go quite well in Melbourne.

They looked good on stage and their act was well rehearsed.

This is important if any group is going to get ahead.

Singer, Jason Gelley has an unusual but powerful voice and if he selects the right numbers he could make quite a name for himself.

I thought some of the numbers that Thursday's Children played were somewhat dated but they presented them well.

Their stage gear was quite impressive.

And don't get me wrong. I do not think that groups should wear dinner suits.

But these guys had obviously had clothes especially made for them and they looked like a professional group.

And this was absolutely vital because they were playing in front of a select audience.

The new manager of the group, Duane Zigliotto, went to some lengths to put on an impressive show for his boys and his move will probably pay off.

The Children, like most groups now, are not green musicians.

Most of them have played with other groups but they do not class themselves as a super-group.

The current line up has only been in existence for about four months and the guys have spent most of this time gaining experience together by playing at football clubs and suburban dances.

The group could be classed as a "hard rock" band but this would not be completely true.

Because the Children are endeavouring to keep their repertoire flexible.

Musical compound cannot appeal to a mere minority if a group wishes to create enough appeal to score enough bookings to bring them a weekly wage.

The Children were born somewhere in the Heidelberg district and it is there that they have a following of 300 fans.

Their two recent appearances at Traffic in town brought them a considerable increase in fans.

Current line up of Thursday's Children is Jason Gelley, (vocal), Peter Lafey, (lead guitar), Philip Lee, (drums) and Peter Slater, (bass guitar).

Ted Joins A New Group

Altona's yodelling policeman Teddy Dellemyn has joined a new group.

They are called the Tryfflys and wait for it.

They are all policemen. But we will be able to tell you much more about the group soon.

Win A Ticket To The Drive-In

You can win yourself a free double pass to the Village Drive-In at Brooklyn.

All you have to do is tell us the three British groups who appeared in the film of "Woodstock".

Address all entries to the Altona Star Pier Street, Altona.

The winner will be announced next week.

Beauty By Ear

Are you interested in learning to apply cosmetics and helping Red Cross at the same time?

You can do this in a novel way by taking a "Beauty by Ear" course.

Introduced by Lancome of Paris, this new method of cosmetic instruction will be given at Buckley and Nunn Ltd., Bourke St., Melbourne, from Monday, August 24 to Friday, August 28. One-hour beauty courses will feature audio equipment which gives each participant personal contact with a central instructress. They will be held at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The reservation fee of $1.50 will be donated to Red Cross. A presentation wallet of Guy Laroche beauty preparations will be given to everyone taking the course.

Bookings are expected to fill quickly. Application forms are available now from the Appeals Department, Red Cross Headquarters, 122 Flinders St., Melbourne, 3000, and from local Red Cross units.

Courageous Win Puts Altona City Into Fight For Flag

In a very hard physical, and sometimes torrid clash, Altona City came out victors against West Newport in humid conditions at Newport in the W.S.F.L. second semi-final last Saturday.

First Quarter

Dell York, Altona's captain coach, won the toss and elected to kick with the use of a slight wind advantage towards the railway end goals. Altona were first into attack from some good work at the centre bounce and quickly moved the ball downfield where some good handball found Marty Crump in position to kick Altona's first goal in three minutes.

Even at this stage everybody was going in fiercely for the ball and there were no beg pardons from either side.

Lack of talk gave West Newport the equaliser when three Altona backmen flew together for a mark, only to see a West rover gather up the ball and casually kick a goal.

Jimmy Rielly, using his speed to great advantage, notched Altona's second major and Ron Schwabe, back after a bad ankle injury, took a strong mark to put City 12 points ahead.

Altona City Best and Fairest winner, Steven Chatfield, and his roving partner, Austin Molloy, were great kick winners in the last part of this quarter and both kicked goals to give City a handy lead at quarter-time.

Scores: Altona, 5-5-35; West Newport, 3-2-20.

Second Quarter

West Newport were determined to make full use of the breeze in this quarter but Altona were just as keen to keep them out.

Players of both sides were hitting hard and anybody too slow in getting rid of the ball was brought to the ground in no mean order.

Altona's backline, with great work from Vic Pateras and Danny Brennan, pressured West Newport's forwards into kicking points. At this stage a couple of behind the play incidents developed into an all-in brawl on the grandstand flank much to the delight of the spectators, but spoiling a good game of football.

It was encouraging to see the umpire show his authority and have the game back in hand after a few minutes, although, unfortunately, there was a report made.

It was really a game of nerves now as the time was ticking away in this quarter.

Good play from Peter Brennan and Jimmy Rielly saw another goal on the board for Altona, but a two goal rally put West Newport only five points down at half-time.

Scores: Altona, 6-9-45; West Newport, 5-10-40.

Third Quarter

It was quite evident some of Altona City's players had been given a "talking to" at half-time as some players who had a lean first half started to "fire".

Morrie Tisdale and Dell York were going well on the ball which brought Graham Brennan right back to his best and he continually drove Altona into attack.

Ronnie Lawson who was quite early started to exert his authority on the half-forward line and Peter Brennan, as cool as ever, was in everything, but Altona was finding it hard to convert goals.

A beautiful 60 yard punt from the tenacious Richie Zapart lifted the whole Altona side, which opened up their game enabling them to rattle on four goals in ten minutes. One of these resulted from superb handball.

Garry Munro to Jim Rielly on to Peter Brennan, who found Ron Schwabe with another handpass in the ten yard square. A few minutes after Stevie Chatfield put one through from the boundary and Altona looked good.

At "orange time" Altona held a 19 point advantage. Scores: Altona, 10-12-72; West Newport, 7-11-53.

Final Quarter

Altona could see their chance of playing in a grand final for the first time since 1964 and were not going to let the chance slip.

Rugged play from Marty Crump got the ball moving forward and good work from Phillip Reid saw Rielly notch his third for the game two minutes into the last quarter.

Whenever West Newport attacked they were kept out by the formidable combination of Pateras and Harris who are working in well together on the last line of defence.

There is no truth in the rumour that Vic's nose was bleeding from the high altitude when he took that great pressure mark in this quarter.

Wes Jenkawitz, who had held his man all day, gave Laurie Egan a run in this quarter and twentieth man Bob Campbell had a run also.

Altona were peppering the West Newport goals continuously now and but for inaccurate kicking would of had the game sewn up.

Two outstanding marks within minutes brought the crowd to its feet, both marks from Altona's ruck rover Martin Crump.

In the closing stages Steve Chatfield, combining well now with Ron Lawson and Austin Molloy, kicked two more goals to win the game for Altona City. A tired but happy Altona side were in the grand final.

Final scores: Altona City, 13-17-95; West Newport, 9-14-68.

Best: R. Zapart, D. York, V. Pateras, P. Brennan, M. Crump, D. Brennan, M. Tisdale.

UNDER 18

(Second Semi-final)

Altona City, 17-13, defeated West Newport, 16-4.

Altona had a team of players who gave their all for their teammates.

Features of the game were:

West Newport's nine goals in the first quarter while City missed chances against the strong breeze.

City's recovery to be two points ahead at half-time with Stephen Chatfield kicking five goals.

The wind calmed during the third term and was almost non-existent during the final quarter.

Better disposal and use of the ground enabled City to score well into the fading breeze to be one point down at the last change.

Altona City now has three teams in grand finals. All team photographs will be taken this Sunday (August 30) at 11 a.m. at the clubrooms.

WESTERN SUBURBS TABLE TENNIS

Highlights of last week's Western Suburbs Table Tennis A Grade matches were the elimination of Kingsville from the final series after their 4-7 defeat at the hands of Maribyrnong who had Frank Kovacs in dynamic form, and the top side, Bodingtons' 6-5 victory over Williamstown Colts, which leaves Colts and Maribyrnong placed level in second place on 101 rubbers, 44 points each, and these two teams will now clash in the semi-final play-off for the right to challenge Robert Bodingtons in the grand final.

A GRADE

Robert Bodingtons reached their second successive A Grade grand final when they defeated Colts with a slightly more even team effort with Lindsay Loone and Alan Wynne winning one rubber each and aggregate winner Alan Coustley undefeated in 3 rubbers.

Colts players, Barry Taylor and Steve Slattery, won 2 rubbers each and each side won one doubles rubber.

Maribyrnong (Alby Walker, Des Jones, Jack Lawler, Frank Kovacs), playing with their strongest team for some time, were too good for Kingsville (Jim Montgomery, Ted Viess, Stephen Hayes) and ran out winners at 7-4.

With the score at 3 rubbers all the match looked set for a neck and neck finish. However, Maribyrnong took the next 4 rubbers to win the match and climb back into the top three.

Centre (Kris Lubowick, Chris Slattery, D. Ross) hold the dubious honor of wooden spoons for 1970. However, their performances in the latter part of the season showed promise for the summer pennant.

In the last round Centre, represented by Chris Slattery and Kris Lubowick, only did well against an improving Liston-Esplanade (John Kelly, Kevin Lambert, Dave Kelly) but lost 4-7.

Kevin Lambert starred for Liston with the maximum 3 rubbers and for Centre Chris Slattery continued his good form to win 2 rubbers.

B1 GRADE SEMI-FINAL

The Australian Glass Manufacturers' combination of Diane Faust, Lance Evans, Wally Rosenweig and Ray Blythman won their way into their first B1 grand final for some years when they defeated F&T Carpets (Des Taaf, Rudi Gregor, Bob Scerri, Sam Psaila) 6-3 in a spectacular and high standard semi-final.

Best players for AGM were Diane Faust and Lance Evans (2 rubbers), Wally Rosenweig (2 doubles rubbers) and for F&T Rudi Gregor also won 2 rubbers.

B2 GRADE

(Preliminary Final)

Reckitt & Colman (J. Jennings, E. Powell, A. Evans) won their way into the grand final when they defeated BAT (A. Clarke, T. Flynn, B. Flynn) 6-4 in a hard fought preliminary final.

Both teams were evenly matched in singles play but it was Reckitt's superiority in doubles that clinched the victory for them.

Ted Powell was Reckitt's best player, winning 2 rubbers and narrowly losing the third, whilst for BAT Terry Flynn was in fine form, also winning 2 rubbers.

Reckitt & Colman will now meet Ballarat Rd. Methodists in the grand final.

C1 GRADE

(Preliminary Final)

Grieve Highway (N. Wynn, G. Lewis, F. Murphy) proved too strong for Reckitt & Colman (P. Berry, E. Drewry, R. Wendt) and won comfortably 6-3.

Neil Wynn was in match-winning form for Grieve's, winning all three rubbers. He was ably supported by Gor-lon Lewis who won the 2 rubbers in which he played. Pat Berry and Ed Drewry tried hard for Reckitt's but could manage only 1 rubber each.

Grieve Highway will now meet Kingsville YMCA in the grand final.

D1 GRADE

(Preliminary Final)

A rejuvenated Avondale Heights (K. Bedella, A. Bondon, P. Beighton) staged a battle royal with Newport Post Office (C. O'Brien, J. Freeburn, R. Dalrymple) and scraped home 6-5, 12-10, 407/400.

Keith Bedella established himself as undoubtedly the top player in the grade with another 3 rubbers against tough opposition. Teammate Andrew Bondon won 2 rubbers in fine style.

Col O'Brien was Newport's best player, winning 2 rubbers. Teammates John Freeburn and Ron Dalrymple won 1 rubber each.

D2 GRADE

(First Semi-final)

Newport Post Office (B. Fox, C. Treble, D. Corbett) won their way through to the grand final when they proved too accomplished for Esso B (J. Ricketts, D. Evans, T. Lloyd) and won comfortably, 6-3.

Post Office will now meet Williamstown Youth Centre in the grand final.

E1 GRADE

(Preliminary Final)

Seaholme (J. Jeffrey, S. Jeffrey, M. Harrison) could not cope with the strong St. Andrew's C.C. combination of N. Bunce, B. Alphey and D. Quayle and were defeated 3-6.

St. Andrew's will now meet Bertrams in the grand final.

E2 GRADE

(First Semi-final)

Scots (G. Harper, S. Bransgrove, J. Robertson) prevented what most observers predicted would be an all Avondale Heights final when they surprisingly defeated Avondale Heights (Red) 6-4.

SPOTSWOOD FOOTBALL CLUB

A GRADE SEMI-FINAL
Spotswood, in a hard, rugged game, proved too strong for Kingsville to win by 15 points.

In the first half, Spotswood played good, open football to have a slight lead of 10 points at half-time.

In the third quarter Spotswood were very determined to increase their lead to 27 points at three-quarter time.

The final quarter was a torrid one with weight being used freely but Spotswood finished on well in an even quarter to win narrowly.

Scores: Spotswood, 14-16-100; Kingsville, 11-19-85.

Goals: Nicol 3, Elliott 2, McAssey 2, Petherick 2, Self, Biddick, J. Granger, Murphy, McGarthy.

Best: Kirwan, McAssey, A. Hewet, Nicol, Elliott, Wade, Weeden, Cody.

A RESERVES SEMI-FINAL
Spotswood played a courageous football against a much taller and heavier side to go down by 23 points to St. Albans.

At half-time there was only one point separating the team but in the third quarter St. Albans broke away to lead by 16 points at the last change.

SPRINGVALE DEFEAT ALTONA IN EASY SOCCER WIN

Altona City never got going last Saturday after Springvale scored a give-away goal in the very first minute.

A Springvale player handled the ball and whilst the Altona players stood still awaiting the free kick the ball was banged home and the referee allowed the score to stand.

The Maroon defence must learn to play to the whistle.

Ian Roberts seemed to stand hypnotised as the half hit shot went on its merry way into an empty net.

Altona proceeded to try and reduce the arrears but with Billy Savage out injured, only the "Werribee Kid" Eilus Jordanus looked likely to score. One brilliant run deserved a goal. Steve Herman had two attempts to push it home from two yards out but the ball was finally scrambled clear. Altona were too slow in moving the ball and by the time they got the ball downfield the Vale players had dropped back to form an impenetrable barrier.

With speed merchants like Jordanus and Herman in attack the Maroons should be swinging the leather around a lot more.

Late in the game Altona lost another goal.

Springvale were flattered to be winners 2 goals to nil as Altona had 75% of the play.

The big talking point this weekend was the play of the Reserve XI. Straubinger, Little and Micevski were outstanding and have a big future. Pitted against men these boys proved that they have ability. Little, in particular, gave an outstanding display.

Top State League side George Cross can be seen in action at Kim Reserve this Sunday, kick-off being 2.30 p.m.

George Cross are desperate to make a good showing on TV. Channel 9 will televise the first soccer game on Sunday week. Because they have no game this weekend George Cross are going to play Altona City who should give them a good workout.

This will be a good opportunity for local fans to see what is needed to bring Altona City up to State League standard.

ATHLETICS

STEVE CONAS 8th IN MARATHON CHAMPIONSHIP

Following up a busy week-end which saw 25 members competing in the Club's annual 4 miles Fearon Shield, won on the post by Kevin Esmore, only 2 members of Williamstown Amateur Club namely Terry Phelon and Steve Conas, competed the following weekend in the Victorian Amateur Athletic Association's Marathon Championship at Werribee.

Terry, who gained himself a Victorian singlet in this event last year, withdrew exhausted at 18 miles, while Steve came home in 8th place, just being out-sprinted in the last 200 yds. for 7th place.

Steve's time of 2 hours, 44 minutes, 57 seconds was 30 minutes faster than his time for the Marathon last year.

Senior and Junior members are reminded of the coaching clinic at Newport oval this Sunday August 30. Commencing at 10.30 a.m. Any boys or girls interested in athletics are invited to attend.

Newport Methodists Football Club

EXCELLENT WIN IN FIRST SEMI-FINAL 1st Quarter

Newport Methodists, adapting themselves quickly to the blustery conditions, produced some outstanding play on football in this quarter.

Newport were much faster than Brunswick and their teamwork and desperation for the ball saw them quickly go to a very handy lead.

Scores: Newport Meths, 7-1-43; Brunswick Pres., 1-3-9.

2nd Quarter
Play was much more even in this quarter as Brunswick lifted their game and were matching Newport around the packs.

Newport rallied late in the quarter to score a couple of goals to go to a 40 point lead at half time.

Scores: Newport Meths., 10-4-64; Brunswick Pres., 3-6-24.

3rd Quarter
Brunswick's big man strength was starting to tell early in the quarter and they scored three early goals to bring some interest back into the play.

There were some excellent passages of play for both sides as they strove desperately for victory.

Newport fought back well under great pressure and were starting to gain the ascendancy once again late in the quarter.

Scores: Newport Meths., 13-7-85; Brunswick Pres., 8-9-57.

Final Quarter
Newport opened up brilliantly in this quarter and sealed the game with two very quick goals. Newport were now on top in most positions and playing desperate football attacked continually for most of the final quarter and went on to record a confidence boosting win by 50 points.

Final Scores: Newport Meths., 18-12-120; Brunswick Pres., 10-10-70.

Goals: Harris 4, E. Rowe 3, Johnson 2, Spicer 2, Seers 2, Neville 2, Spokes, Bridle, Miller.

On Stage With Altona Drama Group

As part of Education Week activities Altona Drama Group sponsored a Drama Festival for schools. Mt. St. Joseph's Girls' School was the only entry and to make a full evening's entertainment the junior members of the A.D.G. put on a play, "The Crimson Coconut."

This play — a farce by Ian Hay — was produced by Rex Jemmeson and taking into account of the age and experience of the cast, the play was generally successful.

The character Jack Fincher, the detective, played by Jeffrey Spicer was played with enthusiasm and confidence and his lines came over clearly.

Jabstick (Stuart Colvin) had the right degree of irascibility.

Caroline McGuckian, playing the waitress, had the right "take it or leave it" attitude the part required and a very level standard of performance throughout with good voice projection.

Michael Murphy as Nitro Gliserinski, the crazy anarchist, showed real talent and demonstrated ability for more serious roles.

Karen Turner, as his wife, also a crazy anarchist, came over strongly.

The Mt. St. Joseph girls presented "Jubilee" by Anton Chekov.

A difficulty in this play was the fact that girls were portraying the characters of men and it is to their credit that they did so well.

The role of Shipoochin, the self-important banker, was best portrayed and Carmel Kenyon who took the part had good control of her voice and movement.

Helen Webb, as his wife Irene, the bird-brained social butterfly, played this aspect of the part to the limit.

The movements of the Clerk (Maria Stary) as an old man, were excellent.

Tibiana was played by Evelyn Rezuk and other small parts were taken by Geraldine Earl, Christine Earl, Anne Moore and Louise Wallis.

As only one school participated there was no contest but the Perpetual Trophy was presented to Mount St. Joseph's by the President of A.D.G., Mr. Jack McGuckian. The $20 cheque was presented on behalf of the Drama Group by hte Mayor, Cr. P. A. Burns. Sister Romuald received these prizes for the school.

The prize for the best performance was awarded to Carmel Kenyon which was a book "On Stage," by Muriel Steinbeck, and the presentation was again made by the Mayor on behalf of the Drama Group.
